

Theta Phi Alpha Congratulates Members of Gamma Sigma Alpha

Theta Phi Alpha Fraternity is proud to recognize the following sisters recently initiated into Gamma Sigma Alpha National Academic Greek Honor Society. Congratulations!

Maggie Driscoll, St. John's University – Queens, Alpha Epsilon Chapter

Rae Rooney Burger, Indian University of Pennsylvania, Alpha Upsilon Chapter

Emily Lauren Atkins, University of Virginia's College at Wise, Gamma Xi Chapter

Kasi E. Hubbard, University of Virginia's College at Wise, Gamma Xi Chapter

Brittany N. Osborne, University of Virginia's College at Wise, Gamma Xi Chapter

Sylwia Wielgosz, St. John's University – Staten Island, Gamma Pi Chapter

These women earned Gamma Sigma Alpha membership based on their impressive academic achievements. Membership in the society is open to students from the sorority/fraternity community who earn a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or greater (on a 4.0 scale) at the start of their junior year or a GPA of 3.5 or higher in any semester during their junior or senior year.

Gamma Sigma Alpha

Gamma Sigma Alpha National Academic Greek Honor Society was established at the University of Southern California on November 9, 1989, and now has more than 200 chapters at universities across the United States and Canada. The society exists to recognize and advance academic excellence as a core value of fraternities and sororities. The Gamma Sigma Alpha headquarters is located in Indianapolis, IN. For further information, visit www.gammasigmaalpha.org.

Theta Phi Alpha Fraternity

Theta Phi Alpha is a national women's social fraternity, founded in 1912 at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. The mission of Theta Phi Alpha is to create close comradeship; to advance educational, social and philanthropic interests and leadership training; to encourage spiritual development and adherence to the highest moral standards; and to promote lifelong bonds of friendship. Theta Phi Alpha's National Office is located in Bay Village, Ohio. To learn more about the Fraternity, please visit www.ThetaPhiAlpha.org.

