Theta Phi Alpha Welcomes New Director of Collegiate Services

BAY VILLAGE, Ohio – Theta Phi Alpha announces the selection of Caitlin Parker as the new Director of Collegiate Services. Caitlin will provide leadership and support to our collegiate members through the administration of operations, chapter services, communications and programming.

Caitlin brings with her three years of experience with the University of Montana’s office of Fraternity and Sorority Involvement (FSI), most recently serving in the role of assistant director. During her tenure at the FSI office she oversaw recruitment, policy compliance, extension opportunities, chapter education, risk mitigation and much more. Caitlin also served as a facilitator for various educational and leadership conferences.

“Caitlin’s professional and volunteer experience demonstrates her passion for values-based organizations and the fraternity-sorority experience,” said Shane McGoey, Executive Director of Theta Phi Alpha. “We are thrilled to begin sharing Caitlin’s talents with our members.”

Caitlin holds a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of Montana. She is originally from Wasilla, Alaska. She will begin her work with Theta Phi Alpha on October 4, 2016.

Founded in 1912, Theta Phi Alpha is a women’s organization to provide close comradeship; to advance educational, social, and philanthropic interests and leadership training; to encourage spiritual development and adherence to the highest moral standards; and to promote lifelong bonds of friendship; a fraternity for college and university women and alumnae. Theta Phi Alpha was founded at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor; today there are 57 active collegiate chapters, 35 alumnae associations and four alumnae clubs in the United States.
